Amy Smith Bio

Amy first attended a ballet class at just 3 years old at a small town in NSW. As her family moved around a lot when she was younger she didn't return to it until Grade 4 at 8 years of age. Her school teachers were amazed at her growth in confidence once commencing ballet lessons. Under the Sharon Hamilton Ballet School of Rockhampton, she completed Grade 1 to Intermediate exams in RAD along with her Grade 1 to Teacher's Certificate in CSTD Jazz. With the school, she also experienced dancing character, cabaret and contemporary styles. She competed at local and Regional eisteddfods in solos, duos/trios and groups and performed in the annual concerts.

For a couple of years she danced with fellow students from around the CQ region with the Queensland Youth Ballet and was once was one of 4 selected for a small run on part when the Australian Ballet Company presented the Nutcracker at Rockhampton's Pilbeam Theatre. Once moving to the Sunshine Coast in her early 20s, Amy took the opportunity to explore different styles at various adult classes. Styles such as jazz, salsa/Latin, jive, contemporary and burlesque, as well as becoming a licenced instructor for the dance fitness programs, Zumba and VeraFlow.

When a Facebook post from First Pointe advertised adult ballet classes, Amy signed up immediately. Returning to the barre, felt like coming home. She attended classes with Principal Miss Laura for a number of years before stepping in to take on teaching both the adult ballet and the teen's ballet & pointe while Miss Laura was on maternity leave. Amy is continuing to teach these classes and would love to have you join in.

Shayelle Lajoie Bio

Shayelle Lajoie is a vibrant, beautiful soul who finds joy in the balance of health, fitness, and the ocean. A runner-up on Australian Survivor's 2022 season, Shay is a yoga instructor, dancer, surfer, biomedical student, and organizer of wellness retreats.

She aspires to pursue her Masters in nutrigenomics, studying food and lifestyle choices. As well as Shay's contagious enthusiasm for surfing, combined with her dedication to nutrition and genetic research she has a passion for ballet dancing.

Shay has been dancing ballet for 27 years and performed with Neo Vida Contemporary Dance Company on the Sunshine Coast in 2020 - 2022.

Shay would like to share her knowledge of the physiology and potential of our bodies through ballet. We hope you can join Shay at ballet class very soon and share Shay's devotion and love of ballet with you all.
